SECTION 2: COMPLIANCE

D&H is committed to utilizing information, technology, responsiveness and superior handling to continue our tradition of exceptional customer service. We recognize and believe in the value of confident partnerships.

D&H maintains a standard that will be enforced and we ask for your support by adhering to our requirements as outlined in this Guide. This will allow us to develop a strong supply chain that will benefit both your organization and our customers. Non-Compliance may result in recovery charges that will be deducted from vendor invoice payments.

Notices of Non-Compliance will be sent via email from the D&H Vendor Compliance Department. Specific shipment information will be provided in the email. Vendors will have 30 days to dispute any notice after which time a Debit Memo will be processed

SECTION 3: YOUR ROLE

To adequately comply with the directives set forth in this following manual.

To include:

- Providing and marking accurate UPCs on merchandise
- Providing accurate bills of lading (BOLs) and packing slips with shipments
- Shipping merchandise in adequate packaging
- Shipping with adequate labeling of cartons
- Shipping with valid purchase orders (POs)
- Following and adhering to the Transportation routing instructions

SECTION 4: PACKING & LABELING

Parcel Carton Packing & Labeling

- Carton Packing
 - Notate when cartons contain mixed models
 - Pack with adequate fill to protect goods in transit
 - Include a separate master packing slip for each PO shipped

- Carton Labeling
 - The vendor's name and address must be displayed as the ship from
 - The ship to name must include the D&H warehouse address
 - PO # must be legibly printed on the ship label.
 - Model # and quantity in the carton must be on the carton or on the label
